

A day in the life of Jason Shead, chief risk officer

Team

03.10.23

TAB's quick fire questions

How long have you worked at TAB?

A year ago (October 2022), the time has flown by! I have been involved in financial services for 23 years. More notably as leading credit functions in short term property finance for over nine years.

What does your role at TAB involve?

Risk oversight for TAB whether this be credit risk or general operational. I liaise and meet with my peers in the executive team daily along with collaborating with every department. I assume direct responsibility for originations so that takes a lot of my day.

What's the best thing about working at TAB?

The collaborative and open nature of the entire working environment. Each voice is heard. The agility and ability to be make quick decisions is extremely important and we do this very well.

What is your favourite band or artist?

Tough one, as this changes a lot, but right now it has to be Biffy Clyro

If you could have one superpower, what would it be?

I would love to be able to fly!

What is your favourite restaurant?

Nobu

What is your favourite holiday destination?

Las Vegas or any city break with my wife

What is your daily coffee intake?

Too many to count.

Capital is at risk. Property values can go down as well as up. Borrowers may default and investments may not perform as expected. Interest and income are not guaranteed. Returns may vary. You should not invest more than you can afford to lose. TAB is not authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority. Investments are not regulated and you will have no access to the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) or the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS). Past performance and forecasts are not reliable indicators of future results and should not be relied on. Forecasts are based on TAB's own internal calculations and opinions and may change. Investments are illiquid. Once invested, you are committed for the full term. Tax treatment depends on individual circumstances and may change.

You are advised to obtain appropriate tax or investment advice where necessary. Understand more about the key risks here.

TAB is a trading name of TAB London Limited. Registered in England and Wales with registration number: 11225821 and whose registered office is at 101 New Cavendish Street, London W1W 6XH.