Property investors in Devon and Cornwall will get their annual opportunity to meet top funders and professional advisors from across the country in Plymouth on Wednesday 27th March at Boringdon Park Golf Club.

Organised by commercial finance brokers Balance for Business, this will be the third annual gathering of its kind to look at the very latest trends, insights and opportunities in the property investment market.

The event kicks off with breakfast followed by a day filled with engaging discussions, interactive stands, and informative presentations led by the renowned funders and professionals. This year's line up of experts includes:

- Shawbrook Bank (Funder)
- Octane Capital (Funder)
- Exeter Finance (Funder)
- Ortus Secured Finance (Funder)
- TAB (Funder)
- Newman Langley & Stavri (Independent Financial Advisor)
- Wolferstans (Solicitors)
- Bright LLP (Solicitors)
- Mark Holt & Co (Accountants)
- Westcotts (Accountants)

The past 12 months have seen very challenging economic conditions for property investors which has reduced deal flow but things have settled down and it is time to look ahead. We are delighted to have once again attracted a stellar list of property funders and professionals to Plymouth and we are confident that even more deals will get done in the room than previous years with an increase in appetite and a decrease in interest rates." He continued: "So come along, discover the latest information, exchange ideas, and forge connections with like-minded individuals who share your passion. Whether you're an entrepreneur, a start-up enthusiast, or simply curious about the world of property investment, this event is for you.
